COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one county (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D. An offense under Article 6701L-1, V.T.C.S. (Driving While Intoxicated) or Article 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S. (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS. An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders then outstanding. (Section 31.06, P.C. is also often cited in the complaint.) If the complaint is originally brought in the county court (Class A or B Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 2. If the case is an appeal from a Justice of the Peace or Municipal Court (Class C Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 3. Also including in Line 3 is an appeal of a case brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Check.

3. DRUG OFFENSES. An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug act (Article 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT. An offense under Penal Code 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC. Violations of the provisions of Article 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Article 6701L-1) and D.U.I.D. (Article 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL. An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not to be included in this category.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS OF DEBT. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE. (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE DOCKET

The number of probate cases, of all types, including mental health proceedings.

PREFACE

In June, 1984, the Supreme Court of Texas and the Texas Judicial Council directed that all future Annual Reports on the court activity of the Texas Judiciary System be published on the state fiscal year basis, rather than on a calendar year basis, as had been the prior custom. The state fiscal year period is from September 1st of one year to August 31st of the next year.

Responding to this directive, the Fifty-Seventh Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System contains the activities of the courts and judicial agencies of the State of Texas from September 1, 1984 to August 31, 1985.

As in past years, this report is intended to inform the general public, as well as the legislative and executive branches of state government, of the accomplishments of the judicial branch during the reported period. It is prepared by the staff of the state Office of Court Administration and submitted under the auspices of the Texas Judicial Council, pursuant to the statutory duty of the Council:

> "The council continuously shall study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement."
> (Section 71.031, Tex. Gov't. Code)

This report includes information of the basic structure and organization of the Texas Judiciary; detailed reports, summaries and analyses of the activities of the various levels of courts comprising the judicial system; reports on the activities of judicial agencies; and listings of judges and clerks.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We express our appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted monthly reports on court operations. Without their efforts, publication of this report would not be possible and the citizens of the State would have no information on the activities of the Judiciary.

Special acknowledgement is due to Supreme Court Chief Justice John L. Hill, Jr. and to Court of Appeals Justice Ben Z. Grant, President of the Texas Judicial Council, for their continuing aid and support. Members of the Judicial Council, who serve without renumeration, are due particular appreciation for their personal time and dedication to the administration of justice in Texas.

TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 69TH LEGISLATURE, AND THE CITIZENS OF TEXAS:

I am pleased to submit to you the 57th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. This report summarizes the activities and operations of more than 2,500 courts in the State of Texas for the year ending August 31, 1985.

For the second time in the more than fifty years of reporting, this report is submitted on a State fiscal year basis. Responding to numerous requests, the Supreme Court and the Texas Judicial Council in June, 1984, determined that all future reports should cover the same period as that of the State fiscal year.

It is my sincere hope that the information contained in this report will be helpful in channeling the efforts of the State to meet the needs of society by providing for a more just, effective and efficient system of justice for all of our citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

Ben Z. Grant

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS
Descriptive Outline
September 1, 1985

The appellate courts of Texas include a Supreme Court, a Court of Criminal Appeals, and 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts. Additionally, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by a county judge. To relieve the docket congestion of this single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established county courts at law and probate courts in populous counties.

The Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. These justice courts also serve as small claims courts. The Legislature has established municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

DISTRICT COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 374.

2. JURISDICTION: There are 374 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own geographical jurisdiction. The Legislature has created one additional court, effective 1-1-87. At present, each district court has one judge, but a constitutional amendment effective in November 1985 allows the Legislature to establish more than one judge per court. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

   District courts are trial courts of general subject-matter jurisdiction. Beginning November 1985, they have "exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by (the) Constitution or other law on some other court...." Generally, this jurisdiction includes original jurisdiction of felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $500.

   County courts at law and constitutional county courts also exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction over civil suits and thus, to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Individual statutes stipulate maximum amounts in controversy over which each county-level court may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county-level courts begins with suits involving $500 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county-level court. Above such maximum jurisdictional amount of the county-level court, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

   The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

   Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law cases. In some instances, the courts that hear criminal cases exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also have the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

   Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Courts of Appeals, except those capital offense cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

3. SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan, district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.

d. Salaries paid by the State:
Effective 9-1-85.....$56,135
Effective 9-1-86.....$57,819
Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties. Total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by justices of the Courts of Appeals serving the same geographical area.
e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 254.

2. JURISDICTION:
a. Legal jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the State, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. In populous counties, the "county judge" may devote full time to managing county government.

An amendment effective November 1985 repealed all expressed constitutional jurisdiction for the county courts and provides that they have jurisdiction "as provided by law."

By statute, (Sec. 26.042, Government Code) constitutional county courts have juvenile jurisdiction and concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $1,000, exclusive of interest. County courts have the general jurisdiction of a probate court (Sec. 4, Probate Code), and they have exclusive original jurisdiction of misdemeanors where the fine allowed exceeds $200 or where a jail sentence may be imposed (Sec. 26.045, Government Code).

Decisions from the municipal and justice of the peace courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Appeals from municipal courts of record are an exception, where the county court reviews only the written record from the trial. Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals, with certain limitations.

In addition to these general grants of statutory jurisdiction, many constitutional county courts are granted additional jurisdiction by statutory provisions which apply only to those courts (see Secs. 26.101 to 26.354, Government Code).
b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
a. Number: One judge per court.
b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
c. Qualifications: "Shall be well informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
e. Term: Four years.

Note: The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 138.

2. JURISDICTION:
a. Legal jurisdiction: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 138 statutory county courts at law in 55 counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. Some of these courts are intended to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts). The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court extends to greater amounts in controversy than the constitutional county courts.
b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
a. Number: One judge per court.
b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filed by county commissioners.
c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute. Some include two to five years' experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
e. Term: Four years.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 948.

2. JURISDICTION: As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided (depending upon the population) into at least one, and not more than eight justice precincts. In each such precinct, one justice of the peace is to be elected, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, two justices of the peace are to be elected from such precinct.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less; concurrent jurisdiction with county courts when the amount is more than $200 but less than $500; and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts when the amount is at least $500 but less than $1,000. By statute, they are granted jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer actions.

A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court.

3. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: No specific statutory or constitutional provisions apply.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 839.

2. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the State. Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 839 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court.

These courts do not have civil jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violation of city ordinances. Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $1,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits (predominately traffic offenses) when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State.

Generally, municipal courts are not courts of record, and appeals from them are by trial de novo in the county court, county court at law or district court. The municipal courts of Austin, El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Marshall, Midland, San Antonio, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls are courts of record, and appeals from these courts are on the record made therein.

3. SEATS: Determined by the city or town.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city as provided by city charter or ordinance.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Most are appointed for two-year terms and serve at the will of the governing body of the city.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM
Subject-Matter Jurisdiction of the Courts
September 1, 1985

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The amendment established the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, which makes the final determination in criminal matters. There are now fourteen intermediate Courts of Appeals which, since September 1, 1981, exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases. Prior to that date, these courts had jurisdiction in intermediate civil appellate cases only.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 374 as of September 1, 1985. (Ten of these courts are designated "Criminal District Courts.")

The geographical area served by each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and does not necessarily correspond to the area served by any previously-established court. Each court has one judge, although, by constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) effective in November 1985, future Legislatures may provide for more than one district judge per court. The State pays the base salary of each judge and some limited expenses of the judge.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. The county judge also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 68 counties. As of September 1, 1985, there are 12 probate courts and 126 county courts at law in operation. Twenty-seven additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but were not in operation as of September 1, 1985.

The Texas Constitution provides for not less than one nor more than 16 justices of the peace in each county. Today there are approximately 940 justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these courts have also served as small claims courts.

By statute, the Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city in the State. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts over state law violations, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality. Municipal courts do not have civil jurisdiction.

Trials in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with 10 exceptions) are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties as noted later where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court. When an appeal is by trial de novo, the case is tried again in the higher court, just as if the original trial had not occurred.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statutes establishing individual courts. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, fourth to statutes creating other courts in the same county (whose jurisdictional provisions may affect the court in question), and fifth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters (such as the Family Code, which requires, for example, that judges who are lawyers hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.)

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Court of Appeals located in Austin. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of Texas. Most counties supplement this base salary for district and Court of Appeals judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the base salary of the judge. The cities finance the operation of municipal courts.

Senate Bill 797 of the 69th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $59.7 million for the operations of the Texas judiciary -- including the Judicial Retirement System -- in fiscal year 1986. This represents only 0.33 of one percent of the $18.3 billion total state budget for fiscal year 1986.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: (1) the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; (2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and (3) the 14 Courts of Appeals, which are the intermediate appellate courts for both civil and criminal appeals from the trial-level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the lower courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented in the trial court.

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a Chief Justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three-judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two Commissions of Appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

> The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of the Court of Appeals is usually final. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the judicial system and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. A constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 10) passed in November 1985 and effective January 1, 1986, gives the Supreme Court (and the Court of Criminal Appeals) jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of judges in the State.

The Supreme Court is composed of one Chief Justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a state-wide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this Court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this State, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas judicial system. These duties include: (1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §22.004); (2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas judicial system (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §2.004); (3) equalizing the dockets between the 14 Courts of Appeals (Gov't Code §73.001); (4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining or removing judges from office (art. V, sec. 1-a, Tex. Const.); (5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State (arts. 304, 306, 320a-1); and (6) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Court Reporters Certification Board and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Board (Gov't Code §52.002).

The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: (1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §1.001); (2) assign judges between administrative judicial districts (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §1.002); (3) assign retired appellate justices to the various Courts of Appeals on a temporary basis (art. 200a-1 and Gov't Code §1.003); (4) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (Gov't Code §21.004); and (5) ensure that the Supreme Court executes and implements its administrative duties and responsibilities (art. 200a-1 and Gov't Code §1.006).

The Court of Criminal Appeals

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides: "The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law." The jurisdiction of this Court extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate Courts of Appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. A constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 10) passed in November 1985 and effective January 1, 1986, gives the Court of Criminal Appeals (and the Supreme Court) jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. In addition, the Legislature has authorized the Court of Criminal Appeals to promulgate "rules of post trial and appellate procedure" in criminal cases.

The Court of Criminal Appeals, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a Presiding Judge and eight additional judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

The Courts of Appeals

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate Courts of Civil Appeals located at various places throughout the State. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the state into 14 "Supreme Judicial Districts" and has established a Court of Appeals in each district. By constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) effective November 1985, the "Supreme Judicial Districts" were renamed "Courts of Appeals Districts."

In the Court Administration Act (art. 200a-1), effective January 1, 1986, the Legislature declares its intention to reapportion the Courts of Appeals Districts "as soon as practicable" so that the districts will "have judicial burdens that are as nearly equal as possible." The Supreme Court and Texas Judicial Council are directed to submit such a reapportionment plan to the next regular session of the Legislature. Courts of Appeals are now located in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Eastland, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston (two courts), San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, and Waco.

Each Court of Appeals has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in its respective district. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The Courts of Appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of these courts is usually final.

Each of the Courts of Appeals has at least three judges — a chief justice and two other justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. Presently, the Dallas Court of Appeals has 13 justices, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine justices, the courts located in Fort Worth and San Antonio each have seven, the courts located in Austin and Corpus Christi each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. Presently there are 80 judges serving on the 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for six-year terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. In all cases, the parties have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve local citizens. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Generally, determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county-level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts at law, and the "statutory" probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the State, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the State.

District-Level Courts

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to state-wide election) and that court proceedings be conducted at the county seat of each county.

District courts are courts of general jurisdiction. The constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) adopted effective in November 1985 amends art. V, sec. 8 of the Texas Constitution, in pertinent part, as follows:

> District Court jurisdiction consists of exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by this Constitution or other law on some other court, tribunal, or administrative body.

This provision, while it extends a district court's potential jurisdiction to "all actions," also makes such jurisdiction relative in that the court's jurisdiction excludes any matters in which exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction is conferred by law upon some other court. For this reason, while one can speak of the "general" jurisdiction of a district court, the actual jurisdiction of any specific court will always be limited by the constitutional or statutory provisions which confer exclusive, original, or appellate jurisdiction on other courts serving the same county or counties.

Taking into account the various constitutional and statutory provisions which confer general jurisdiction on other levels of court, it can be said that district courts generally have the following jurisdiction: original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, and misdemeanors involving official misconduct; cases of divorce; suits for title to land or enforcement of liens on land; contested elections; suits for slander or defamation; suits in behalf of the state for escheat; and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $500 or more. (This lower limit of district court jurisdiction is no longer clearly defined. See amended art. V, §8, Tex. Const.; §24.007 and 27.031, Gov't Code; and art. 1970a, V.T.C.S.) In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $500 but is less than $5,000. The Legislature has, however, tended to increase the concurrent jurisdictional amounts of individual county courts at law above the $5,000 general limit.

The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of September 1, 1985, the Legislature has established 374 separate district-level courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge elected by the voters of the judicial district. In a number of locations, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

The 1985 constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) established a Judicial Districts Board to reapportion Texas Judicial Districts, subject to legislative approval. The same amendment also allows for more than one judge per judicial district.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Specialized Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the constitutional jurisdiction of a district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). Accord, Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). See also, Ward v. State, 523 S.W.2d 681, 682 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975); Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933); and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

In St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, the Supreme Court stated the rule as follows: "If the Legislature did enough to bring into active existence a district court, it was at once clothed with the powers conferred by the Constitution upon such courts, and any attempts in the act to unduly limit those powers must be treated as futile." 85 S.W.2d at 788. In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that, although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County purportedly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases only, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

A new facet has been added to this jurisdictional issue by the 1985 amendment of art. V, §8 of the Constitution which now grants the district courts jurisdiction over all matters "except in cases where...jurisdiction may be conferred by this constitution or other law on some other court...." The extent to which this provision may alter the scope of district court jurisdiction cannot yet be determined.

Although the Legislature has not been able to divest a regular district court of any of its constitutional jurisdiction, the Legislature may, under its constitutional authority to create "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) establish special "district-level" courts with limited jurisdiction. See Jordan v. Crudgington, 231 S.W.2d 641 (Tex. 1950) (regarding the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941) (regarding the Criminal District Court of Willacy County).

One "Criminal District Court" was created with jurisdiction limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County.	$24.920	1

As will be noted later, most special "Criminal District Courts" have jurisdiction concurrent with county-level courts in criminal matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes frequently express the intention that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction.

The 65th Legislature in 1977 converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these courts are to have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. There are now 32 such courts:

As of September 1, 1985, 124 statutory county courts at law and 14 probate courts had been created, largely in metropolitan areas. On October 1, 1985, one additional county court at law took effect, and on or before January 1, 1986, 18 more will become active, making a total of 143 county courts at law and 14 probate courts. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised concurrently by the county court at law and the district court.

County-Level Courts

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice, who was appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, with a two-year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or more, and less than $1,000; general jurisdiction over probate cases; and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors where punishment for the offense, upon conviction, is by fine exceeding $200, or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const., Art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction (by trialde novo) over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Original and appellate judgments of the county courts may be appealed to the Courts of Appeals. The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ..." This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Presently, of the 254 county judges in the State, approximately one-fourth are licensed to practice law.

Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to] conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto," the Legislature has created statutory county courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court. The Legislature has authorized a total of 165 of these statutory courts in 68 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office. As of September 1, 1985, 138 of these courts were in actual operation. (See table below.)

Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following statutory county courts (the number of statutory courts in each county is shown in parentheses):

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in county-wide, partisan elections for four-year terms. Any vacancies occurring between elections are filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts uniformly require that the persons serving as judges must be licensed to practice law in Texas.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of the county courts at law with the district courts extends to a higher dollar amount in controversy than for "constitutional" county courts, but to determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Ninety-three of such courts, however, have had had higher maximum jurisdictional amounts established by statute. (See below for specific examples.) Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts take many forms. In the creation of two county courts at law, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

- County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361)
- County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-372)

35

In one county, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court is transferred to the county court at law and, if the county judge is an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction in all matters. If the county judge is not an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction only in probate and mental health matters:

- County Court at Law of Bastrop County (art. 1970-393)

In the creation of 25 county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

- County Court at Law of Anderson County (art. 1970-377)
- County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)
- County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)
- County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305)
- County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County (art. 1970-305c)
- County Court at Law of Collin County (art. 1970-362)
- County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County (art. 1970-362a)
- County Court at Law No. 3 of Collin County (art. 1970-362b)
- County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)

- County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.2)

- County Court at Law No. 3 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341b)
- County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)
- County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)
- County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)

- County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a)
- County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.1)
- County Court at Law No. 4 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.2)
- County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

37

Two county courts at law exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters that had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court and in specified family law matters. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

- County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)
- County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

38

The Legislature provided, in the creation of four county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a)

39

Similarly, another county court at law was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-126b)

40

For seven county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)
County Court at Law No. 7 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.3)
County Court at Law No. 8 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.3)
County Court at Law No. 9 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.3)
County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)
County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343)

41

Two county courts at law were transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, and the county courts at law were instructed to give preference to criminal matters and appeals de novo from municipal and justice courts:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.2)
County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.2)

42

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Similarly, another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to six county courts at law:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-76)
County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)
County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e)

In one county, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except civil cases up to $500, over which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction. The county court at law may exercise probate and mental health jurisdiction only when the county judge is absent or unable to handle proceedings in those matters:

County Court at Law of Wichita County (art. 1970-166d) — 47

One county court at law may exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except civil cases with less than $500 in controversy, over which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction. The county court at law has concurrent probate jurisdiction with the county court:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Wichita County (art. 1970-166e) — 48

Ten of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

Two county courts at law were created with the proviso that they and the county court were to

1. Effective 1-1-86 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.
2. Effective 1-1-88 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.

have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters, but that no probate cases were to be filed in the county court at law:

- County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

51

In four counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. The statutes creating ten of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

- County Court at Law No. 3 and Probate Court of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357a)

Justice of the Peace Courts

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least one, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected a justice of the peace. If the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, an additional justice of the peace is authorized. Approximately 948 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and only about eight percent of the justices of the peace in the State are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200 to $1,000. By statute, they are given jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer cases. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 37 counties, the county court, by special statute, has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justices of the peace in that county:

Municipal Courts

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 839 cities. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances. Such ordinances are generally punishable by fines up to $200, but since September 1, 1983, fines of up to $1,000 may be provided for violation of ordinances relating to fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits, when punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, except 10, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo.

Under the authority of special statutes, municipal courts in the following 10 cities operate as "courts of record":

Austin	Marshall
El Paso	Midland
Houston	San Antonio
Longview	Sweetwater
Lubbock	Wichita Falls

Statutory authorization to establish municipal courts of record in Dallas, Fort Worth and Odessa had not been implemented as of September 1, 1985.

In the courts of record, a formal record and transcript is made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. Such appeals are generally heard in the county court or county court at law, but the Legislature has authorized the City of El Paso to create a municipal court of appeals to hear appeals from that city's municipal courts. The statutes creating these municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this State. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 1,090 municipal judges in this State, about 39 percent presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few of the smaller cities of the State, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office range from two years to an indefinite term--at the will of the governing body.

Article 200a-1, Ch. 4, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the State for administrative purposes. An active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience in a district court serves as the Presiding Judge in each such region, upon appointment by the Governor.

The duties of a presiding judge include promulgation of regional rules of administration, advising local judges on case flow management, recommending to the Supreme Court regional changes necessary for the improvement of judicial administration, acting for local administrative judges who do not perform their duties, and implementing administrative rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the district and statutory county court judges in the administrative region to consult on the state of business in the courts. This conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the region. The Presiding Judge may assign active and senior district judges and active, retired or former county court at law judges residing within the administrative region to courts within the region. The Presiding Judge of one administrative region may request the Presiding Judge of another region to assign a judge from that region to sit in a court located in the administrative region of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative region for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

2. Appointed eff. 5-7-85, replacing Jose R. Alamia.
3. Appointed eff. 9-23-85, replacing Ray L. McKim.
4. Appointed eff. 9-11-85, replacing Eugene E. Jordan.

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTAL COMPENSATION

Government Code, Secs. 31.001-31.004 V.T.C.A., authorizes the counties in each Supreme Judicial District to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Art. 6813b, Sec. 3, V.T.C.S., authorizes associate justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined yearly salary from state and county sources of up to $1,000 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. This same provision authorizes the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of up to $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 1985, the yearly state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $78,795.

Various statutes pertaining to particular courts or counties allow the state salaries of district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. The 1986-87 General Appropriations Act, at Art. IV, Page 26, "Judiciary -- Special Provisions," Sec. 2, authorizes district court judges to receive a total salary of up to $1,000 less than the combined yearly salary from state and county sources received by justices of the Courts of Appeals in whose district the district court is located.

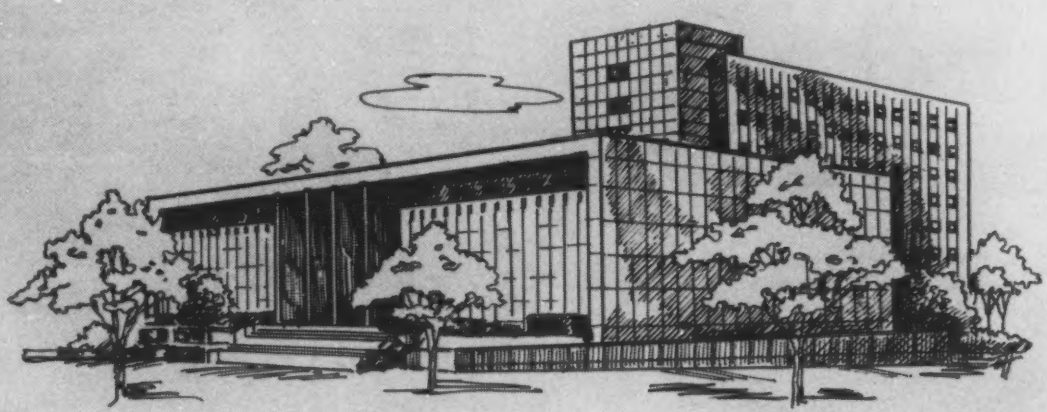
JUDICIAL BRANCH: REPORTS AND DEVELOPMENTS



SUPREME COURT BUILDING
AUSTIN, TEXAS

REPORTS OF JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., to make a ". . .continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods of its improvement." To enable it to fulfill these functions, the Council maintains statistics on docket activity of the courts of the state; conducts studies on methods to improve the administration of justice; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedures of the Council to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Supreme Court.

Three meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during Fiscal Year 1985 -- on October 5, 1984 and February 8 and June 21, 1985.

Former Article 2328a, now Chapter 71 of the Government Code, provides for the following specific duties of the Council:

(1) continuously study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement;

(2) receive and consider advice from judges, public officials, members of the Bar, and citizens concerning remedies for faults in the administration of justice;

(3) design methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in or improving the administration of justice;

(4) file a complete detailed report with the Governor and the Supreme Court before December 2 of each year on Council activities, information from the Council's study, and Council recommendations and a supplemental report on Council activities, findings, or recommendations at a time it considers advisable;

(5) investigate and report on any matter concerning the administration of justice that the Supreme Court or the Legislature refers to the Council;

(6) gather judicial statistics and other pertinent information from the several state judges and other court officials of this state; and

(7) meet at least once in each calendar year and at other times as ordered by the Council or under its authority.

Membership of the Council

Council membership is composed of: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; (2) two justices of the Courts of Appeals; (3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions; (4) the chairman and immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; (5) seven members of the bar appointed by the Governor, and (6) two non-lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist.

The Honorable Ben Z. Grant, Justice of the 6th Court of Appeals in Texarkana, has served as President of the Judicial Council since July 1980. Before being elected to the Court of Appeals, Judge Grant was District Judge of the 71st Judicial District and prior to that, had served for ten years as a member of the Texas House of Representatives. During that tenure, he served for three terms as chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and is a member of the Council as a result of that service.

Also serving as officers of the Council during fiscal year 1985 were the Honorable John L. Hill, Jr., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, vice president; and the Honorable Tom G. Davis, Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, secretary. Judge Davis is the designee of the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Legislative members of the Council are: State Senator Oscar H. Mauzy, chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Senator Ray Farabee, immediate past chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Representative Robert Bush, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Justice Grant, immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Members from the Courts of Appeals serving during 1985 were: the Honorable Sam Bass, Justice, First Court of Appeals, Houston; and the Honorable Paul C. Murphy, Justice, Fourteenth Court of Appeals, Houston.

Members who are presiding judges of the Administrative Judicial Regions include: the Honorable Ray L. McKim, Seventh Administrative Judicial Region, Odessa; and the Honorable Charles J. Murray, Eighth Administrative Judicial Region, Fort Worth.

Attorney members are: the Honorable John L. McCraw, Jr., Justice of the 5th Court of Appeals, McKinney; Mr. L. E. Frazier, Houston; Mr. Mark Martin, Dallas; the Honorable Charles W. Barrow, Waco; Mr. Alan McNeill, Beaumont; and the Honorable Robert O. Smith, Austin.

Lay members include: Mr. Bill Hartman, Rosenberg; and Mr. Gene McLaughlin, Ralls.

Professional Education For Municipal Judges

Article 1200f, V.T.C.S., until repealed by House Bill 309 of the 69th Legislature, directed the Council to encourage the development of courses for the continuing legal education of municipal judges; to promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses and the accreditation of such courses; and to submit an annual report on the program to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Attorney General, and the mayor of the cities of those judges who have not attended an accredited course. House Bill 309, effective September 1, 1985, established the Judicial and Court personnel Training Fund and empowered the Supreme Court to administer legal education programs for all judges.

During the year, 32 courses accredited by the Council were held and 789 municipal judges attended these courses.

County Bail Bond Board Reports

The 67th Legislature enacted Senate Bill 727, relating to the regulation of bail bondsmen, which became effective August 31, 1981. Section 5 of the new statute (Article 2372p-3, V.T.C.S.) automatically creates a county bail bond board in counties having a population of more than 110,000, and authorizes other counties, at their option, to create a county bail bond board. Section 5(f)(8) provides that it will be the duty of the county bail bond boards:

> To file reports and furnish information on the operation of the bonding business in the county at the request of the Texas Judicial Council which shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1 of each year on the operation of the bonding business in the state.

A questionnaire and statistical report form was distributed to the counties involved, to be returned in November, 1984. Responses to the questionnaire were compiled into a report to the Governor and the Legislature. Because of the low response of counties to the request for information, a valid summarization of the bonding business statewide could not be made.

Legal Representation for District Judges

The Council had several discussions on the matter of legal representation for district judges who are sued as a result of issuance of orders in administrative matters. Prior to the 1985 legislative session, the Council approved a proposed bill which would place the burden of proof on the party questioning the administrative order. This bill provides that challenges to an administrative

Courts of Inquiry

The Council approved the draft of a bill which would amend the provisions Chapter 52, Code of Criminal Procedure, regarding courts of inquiry. These amendments would authorize the institution of a court of inquiry by district courts exclusively, and then only after the filing of a sworn affidavit by the judge finding that good cause exists that an offense has been committed. The bill also requires the local district or county attorney to assist in courts of inquiry and establishes a method of payment of fees if an attorney is appointed.

Long Range Goals for Texas Courts

The Council has adopted an on-going project to develop long-range goals for Texas courts.

As adopted through the end of fiscal year 1985, these goals number ten:

(1) The Judiciary should be independent from reliance on any financial sources except for funding by the State of Texas.

(2) The judges of Texas should be relieved of non-judicial functions so that they can devote full-time to judging.

(3) Technological resources should be fully employed by the judiciary for efficiency in the administration of justice.

(4) Uniformity should be achieved in the compensation and benefits for state judges serving on the same level of courts.

(5) The jurisdiction of courts on the same level should be uniform throughout the State of Texas.

(6) The judiciary should be recognized as a branch of government co-equal with the other two branches of government.

(7) Implement the Time Standards for Disposition of Cases promulgated by the Supreme Court.

(8) Implement dispute resolution alternatives.

(9) The development of a better public understanding of the judicial system.

(10) Achieve equitable reapportionment of judicial districts through the mechanism of the Judicial Districts Board.

Revision of Monthly Reporting Forms

The customary five-year review of the monthly statistical reporting forms was conducted by the Council. Letters were mailed to over 3,000 judges and clerks of courts requesting suggestions for changes to the forms. Suggestions received as a result of these letters were carefully evaluated and most were incorporated into the revised forms.

Action on Recommended Legislation

Several items of legislation recommended by the Council were enacted by the regular session of the 69th Legislature:

(1) Judicial Districts Board.

A constitutional amendment and implementing legislation to establish a Judicial Districts Board to reapportion the judicial districts of the state was first prepared by the Texas Judicial Council in 1964 and subsequently reendorsed in 1983 and 1985. The constitutional amendment was approved by the voters of the state on November 5, 1985.

The Judicial Districts Board is composed of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court who serves as chairman, the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions, the President of the Texas Judicial Council, and one lawyer to be appointed by the Governor. The responsibilities of this Board, as defined by this proposed constitutional amendment, includes reapportioning the judicial districts of the state in the interim between regular sessions of the legislature, except that a reapportionment may not be ordered during an interim immediately following a regular session in which the legislature enacted a valid and subsisting statewide reapportionment, and making a statewide reapportionment within 3 years after each decennial census. Any reapportionment must be approved by record vote of the majority of the membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives before it becomes effective.

(2) State Law Questions from Federal Court.

The Council endorsed passage by the voters of Senate Joint Resolution 10. This proposed constitutional amendment grants the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from federal appellate courts.

(3) Judicial Code.

Continuing the long-range project of codification of state statutes, a non-substantive codification of varied statutes relating to the Judicial Branch was passed during the session as Title 2 of the Government Code. This new judicial code draws together into 32 chapters most of the existing statutes relating to the courts, judges, prosecuting attorneys, judicial personnel and officials, juries, and court administration. Ben Z. Grant, President of the Judicial Council, served as chairman of a special advisory committee to the Legislative Council on preparation of the judicial code.

(4) Court Administration Act.

A wide-ranging Court Administration Act, which codified and renewed various aspects of current law as well as adding significant new provisions, was adopted.

The new legislation (H.B. 1658) authorizes the Supreme Court to adopt rules of administration for the operations and management of the court system and directs the Chief Justice to ensure that the Supreme Court implements its administrative duties and responsibilities.

Major provisions of this bill are:

A. The Supreme Court is directed to assess the need for adding, consolidating, eliminating, or reallocating existing appellate courts. The Supreme Court and the Texas Judicial Council are directed to present a reapportionment plan for the Courts of Appeals to the next regular session of the legislature.

B. The Supreme Court is to ensure adequate education programs for judges and court personnel if funds are available.

C. Existing Administrative Judicial "Districts" are redesignated as Administrative Judicial "Regions."

D. Each presiding judge must maintain a list of retired judges of the administrative region divided into the following areas of specialty: criminal, civil, and domestic relations. Retired or former judges may be assigned only to cases in their area of specialty, but a judge may qualify in more than one specialty.

E. To be eligible for assignment, retired or former district judges must (a) have served as judge for at least four years, (b) not have been removed from office or resigned while under investigation, and (c) attend at least five days of continuing legal education approved by the State Bar or Supreme Court each year.

F. Any party to a civil case may file peremptory challenge to an assigned judge.

G. An active county court at law judge may be assigned by the presiding judge of the administrative region to serve in another county court at law; however, no judge may hear a case over which his or her court does not have jurisdiction.

H. Judges of each county are directed to adopt local rules of administration and a local administrative judge is authorized to be elected by the judges in each county.

Courts of Appeals Redistricting

Section 1 of House Bill 1658 directs the Judicial Council and the Supreme Court to prepare a reapportionment of the courts of appeals districts to equalize the "judicial burden" among the various courts of appeals, and to submit this plan to the next regular session of the Legislature. A committee consisting of Dean Charles Barrow of Waco, Chairman; Mr. L. E. Frazier of Houston; and Mr. Mark Martin of Dallas was appointed to study the existing courts of appeals districts and to prepare a suggested reapportionment plan to the Council. This report and plan was adopted by the Council on November 8, 1985, and transmitted to the Supreme Court.

The findings of the Committee were:

(1) The Courts of Appeal dockets are generally fairly well equalized by the Supreme Court pursuant to its transfer authority, but many attorneys object to having their cases transferred outside the court of appeals district in which they practice.

(2) The committee had written letters to the chief justices of each of the courts of appeals to obtain their suggestions on the reapportionment. The replies indicated that all courts except Dallas were satisfied with the current districts. Members of the Dallas Court suggested that district might need to be limited solely to Dallas County.

(3) The criteria used by the committee in preparing its suggested redistricting plan was:

a. caseloads should be equalized as nearly as possible pursuant to the directive of House Bill 1658 that the "judicial burdens" of the courts should be made as nearly the same as possible;

b. overlapping between districts should be eliminated;

c. the committee assumed
   (i) that the legislature did not intend for any plan to recommend any increase or decrease in the number of justices presently authorized for any one court of appeals,
   (ii) that there should not be any increase or decrease in the number of courts nor
   (iii) any change of their present location.

The recommendations of the Council would:

(1) remove all current overlaps among the courts of appeals districts except for the 1st and 14th districts which are coterminous;

(2) equalize as nearly as possible the judicial burdens of each court as directed by Section 1 of H.B. 1658. For this reason, the number of appeals filed during the years 1982, 1983, and 1984 were used rather than the population of the individual counties;

(3) use as the basis for the reapportionment only those adjustments necessary to equalize the judicial burdens of each court;

(4) retain the location of and number of judges serving on each court;

(5) compose each of the proposed court of appeals district of one or more whole counties as directed by Section 1 of H.B. 1658; and

(6) keep as compact as possible, the proposed districts without regard to the home counties of incumbent justices. It was the consensus of the Council that this problem should be specifically called to the attention of the legislature so that appropriate "grandfather clauses" or other arrangements could be made to protect the affected incumbent justices. It was also noted that the Second Court of Appeals in Fort Worth may have one more justice than necessary for the caseload of the district logically allocated to it.

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established in 1977 by Article 2328b, V.T.C.S. (now Chapter 72, Tex. Gov't Code). The agency operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute with the implementation of the provisions of the act and of any rules of administration promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this State. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by the Office of Court Administration:

(1) assist the justices and judges in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with the administrative judges and assist them in discharging duties imposed by law or by a rule adopted by the Supreme Court;

(3) recommend to the Supreme Court appropriate means to implement the act;

(4) examine the judicial dockets, practices, and procedures of the courts and the administrative and business methods or systems used in the office of a clerk of a court or in an office related to and serving a court and recommend a necessary improvement to a method or system; a form or other document used to record judicial business; or any other change that will promote the efficient administration of justice;

(5) prepare and submit an estimated budget for the appropriation of funds necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and recommend expenditures of funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(6) consult with and assist court clerks; other court officers or employees; and clerks or other officers or employees of offices related to and serving a court to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(7) consult with and make recommendations to administrators and coordinators of the courts to provide for uniform administration of the courts and efficient administration of justice;

(8) implement rules of administration or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief Justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of the Office to be published in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council.

The Government Code further provides that the Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council. In addition, under the authority granted to it by Section 72.011 of the Government Code, the Supreme Court has directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary staff functions for the orderly operations of the Texas Court Reporters Certification Board.

Statistical Reporting Systems

Under the authority of Section 71.035, Tex. Gov't Code, which provides for the reporting of court activity and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the Office receives approximately 2,500 reports each month from the courts of the State. These reports are checked for accuracy and any necessary corrections are made. The information is then entered into a computerized data system. This provides ready access to the current status of the dockets of the courts throughout the state on a county-by-county basis. Numerous requests for this type of information are received each year.

The monthly reports are submitted on official forms developed in consultation with advisory committees of local court officials. These include a six-page report for the activities of the Courts of Appeals, an eight-page report for the district courts, a five-page report for county-level courts, and two-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts. Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Court Activity Reports

From the information reported to the Office, a monthly summary of district court activity is compiled for each of the nine administrative judicial regions of the state. These reports provide the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions current caseload data on all district courts within their administrative regions.

In addition, a quarterly report on docket activity in the district courts and the county-level courts is prepared and distributed to district and county-level judges and other interested parties.

Equalization of Courts of Appeals Dockets

The Supreme Court is responsible for equalizing the dockets of the Courts of Appeals (Section 73.001, Tex. Gov't Code). To assist the Court in docket equalization, this Office also maintains a monthly reporting system on the activity of the Courts of Appeals.

From the case data supplied by the Courts of Appeals, the Office prepares a monthly summary of the docket status of each Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court uses the Court of Appeals docket report to guide the transfer of cases between Courts of Appeals.

During fiscal year 1985 (which ended August 31, 1985), the following transfers between the Courts of Appeals were made on order of the Supreme Court:

November, 1984

14 civil cases from 8th (El Paso) to 11th (Eastland)

Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System

As provided by law, the Fifty-sixth Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the Eighth Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in January, 1985, for the first time on a state fiscal year basis. This 632-page report included statistical data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1984. Approximately 23,000 monthly statistical reports were compiled and validated during the year to produce the data in the Annual Report. The Annual Report also contained information on the variances in subject-matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts; a thorough, descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and other persons employed by the Texas Judicial System. Also included were statistics of assignments by presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial regions. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 4,000 copies were distributed.

Legislative Services

During fiscal year 1985, this Office continued its normal liaison duties with committees and members of the 69th Legislature. The staff worked closely with interim legislative study committees, including the Select Committee on the Judiciary, and drafted several bills for members of the Legislature, judges, and organizations to consider for introduction during the 69th Session.

During the session, numerous requests for special statistical or fiscal reports on proposed or pending bills were received from members of the Legislature and staffs of the various legislative committees having jurisdiction over bills affecting the courts. These requests usually entailed the preparation of individualized reports for reply.

Assistance of various types was provided to the legislative committees concerning the Judiciary, including the Senate Jurisprudence and State Affairs Committees and the House Judiciary and Judicial Affairs Committees. The staff also prepared a daily memo analyzing bills that would affect the judicial branch of government and distributed it to the justices of the Supreme Court, the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions, and other interested officials of the Judiciary.

Texas Judicial Report

The Office has published intermittently the Texas Judicial Report, a newsletter for judges, clerks and other court personnel.

Following the 69th Session of the Legislature, a special tabloid-sized edition of this newsletter, dealing with new legislation affecting the Judiciary, was published and widely distributed.

State Budget Estimates for the Judiciary

The act establishing the Office of Court Administration directs the agency, under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to prepare and submit to the Legislature budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government.

In fulfilling this responsibility for the 69th Legislature, the Chief Justice appointed a Judicial Budget Board to develop a comprehensive budget for the operation of the judicial system of the state. At the direction of the Chief Justice, the staff of the Office of Court Administration has served as Secretariat to the Board to coordinate the preparation of budget requests by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members personally conferred with district judges; personnel and justices of each of the Courts of Appeals, the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals; and the statewide judicial agencies to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budget requests.

Technical Assistance to Trial Courts

Technical assistance in case management, court administrative procedures, utilization of personnel, and physical space management was provided by the Office to several trial courts of the state during the year. On-site assessments were made, some in one or two days, while others required several visits. Considerable research time was required to enable the Office to make proper needs-assessments and project findings. Following are examples of such assistance:

In October, 1984, the district courts serving Williamson County were visited. The population of Williamson County has increased 105 percent within the past ten years. Between 1979 and 1983, felony filings increased 149 percent and civil filings, 36 percent. The Office of Court Administration recommended a part-time master to hear family law cases, and complete utilization of a microcomputer system previously purchased but not in use by every division of the justice system. Training on the system was recommended for all court personnel. The Office also devised basic procedures for using the computer in felony cases. A manual case tracking system which could convert easily to automation was recommended at a follow-up visit in March, 1985.

In December of 1984, on-site technical assistance was provided to the district courts serving Bastrop, Burleson, Lee and Washington Counties where two judges preside at least one day each week in each of the four counties. Recommendations included a scheduling plan, increased staff support, and a criminal case management information system for the courts.

The county court at law judges of Nueces County requested technical assistance in case management and personnel utilization in December, 1984. The Office performed an on-site assessment in February, 1985, and made several recommendations concerning automation, staffing, and record-keeping.

The district courts serving Bowie County were visited in March, 1985. The judges requested technical assistance in facilities utilization conducive to efficient case disposition prior to the completion of construction of a Criminal Justice Center in Texarkana and a new courthouse in New Boston.

Several space utilization and staffing recommendations were made after consultation with the district clerk. A need to automate the child support division and jury system was stressed, as was obtaining sufficient office space for the district clerk in the new Criminal Justice Center. The Office also recommended that the courts create a users' committee as automation of the courts progresses to ensure that the courts' needs are being met.

Travis County Courts at Law requested assistance and an on-site visit took place in August, 1985. Among the recommendations were a reorganization and upgrading of staff to accommodate automated civil case management, scheduling changes to help eliminate lengthy docket calls, and an implementation of time standards in accordance with state standards. Effective space management was also addressed.

During all the evaluations, a method for setting every civil and criminal case for a date and purpose certain was recommended, as was a need for standard and effective time guidelines set by local rules for disposition of cases.

In many of the on-site evaluations, a need for prompt disposition and effective tracking of jail cases was stressed.

Technical assistance was scheduled for the district courts serving Orange County in September, 1985, and for Cameron County in December, 1985.

In addition to on-site technical assistance, the Office, on request from various district and county clerks, began a series of presentations on the revised Official Monthly Report from district and county clerks to the Texas Judicial Council. were requests for assistance with the new forms are scheduled for September, October, and November of 1985.

In February, 1985, the Office assisted in the training of municipal court clerks during an educational seminar held in Fort Worth. A video tape was made to be used at other training sessions. The Office was also scheduled to visit the Municipal Court Clerks' Conference in September, 1985.

Support to Other Agencies

The staff presented several lectures at seminars of the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association to aid in providing the schooling mandated by Article 5972, V.T.C.S., and at seminars for municipal court judges conducted under the provisions of former Article 1200f, V.T.C.S. Presentations were also made at County and District Clerks' Association conferences and the Texas Court Clerks' Association seminars and meetings. These presentations provide technical assistance and aid in improving the reporting rates of the monthly court activity reports. Information on the Judicial branch of government and court activities was provided to numerous individual citizens and to many other state agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the Judiciary. Contact was maintained with the state court administrative offices of other states and with the National Center for State Courts to keep abreast of new developments in the administration of justice in other states and to provide them with information on the Texas Judicial System.

Court Reporters Certification Board

The Court Reporters Certification Board operates pursuant to Chapter 52 of the Government Code, V.T.C.A. (hereinafter "Code"), and in accord with rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas.

Under the Code, effective September 1, 1985, no person may engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of Texas, unless that person is certified as a shorthand reporter by the Supreme Court of Texas upon the recommendation of the Board.

Legislative Changes

The 69th Legislature codified Article 2324b, V.T.C.S., originally effective August 29, 1977, as part of the Code. Amendments to the original act adopted by the 68th Legislature were carried over into the Code. For example, an amendment changed the name of the Board from the Texas Court Reporters Committee to the Court Reporters Certification Board, to better indicate the work of the Board.

Also, the 68th Legislature expanded the total membership of the Board from nine persons to twelve in order to include three lay members. Third, an amendment provided for certification by one of three authorized methods of shorthand reporting: machine shorthand, oral stenography, or written shorthand. Applicants must now pass the examination by use of the method in which certification is sought. Finally, the 68th Legislature expanded the disciplinary power of the Board to include, in addition to the previous power of the Board to revoke certification, its present power to reprimand or suspend certified shorthand reporters.

Responsibilities of the Board

The Board is now empowered to: (1) develop and administer tests to determine the qualifications of applicants for certification as shorthand reporters under the Code; (2) collect fees from applicants for certification and renewal of certification; (3) determine the qualifications and pass on the eligibility of all persons applying for certification or reinstatement under the Code; (4) certify to the Supreme Court the applicants determined upon examination to be qualified as shorthand reporters; (5) conduct hearings on complaints filed against individual certified shorthand reporters; and (6) reprimand, suspend or revoke the certification of reporters for grounds specified under the Code.

Activities of the Board

The major activities of the Board include the testing of applicants for certification as certified shorthand reporters and the discipline of shorthand reporters previously certified. The Board is not an advisory agency.

Pursuant to Section 52.023 of the Code, the Board administers tests to determine the qualifications of applicants for certification. From September 1, 1984, until August 31, 1985, it administered four examinations to 548 applicants. One hundred and twenty-two of these applicants successfully completed both the oral and written portions of the test and were officially certified as shorthand reporters. It is estimated that the Board will administer examinations to 550 applicants for certification during the coming year.

Pursuant to Section 52.029 of the Code, the Board may, for specified grounds on a verified complaint, reprimand, suspend, or revoke the certification of an individual shorthand reporter, after notice and opportunity for a hearing. From September 1, 1984, until August 31, 1985, the Board reviewed eight formal complaints against certified shorthand reporters. Seven of these complaints were dismissed prior to hearing and one was heard. It is estimated that the Board will review a minimum of ten complaints against certified shorthand reporters during the coming year.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

[Report prepared and submitted by Robert C. Flowers, Executive Director.]

Role of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct

With the addition of retired judges and masters during fiscal year 1985, the State Commission on Judicial Conduct (hereinafter called Commission) assumed jurisdiction over more than 3,000 judicial officers in Texas.

The Commission's primary role is threefold:

* to preserve the integrity of all judges in the state;
* to ensure public confidence in the judiciary; and
* to encourage judges to maintain high standards of both professional and personal conduct.

In obtaining those objectives, the Commission in fiscal year 1985 disposed of 390 complaints, a fifteen percent increase over 1984. A variety of sanctions were employed, ranging from public reprimands to private admonitions. In nine cases, judges chose to resign or retire rather than encounter further Commission action. Overall, the Commission ordered sanctions in 20.9 percent of complaints in fiscal 1985, compared to 14 percent in 1984. In other instances, the Commission dismissed cases wherein the judge initiated corrective action or improved procedures or policies.

Those who currently come under Commission purview include justices on the Supreme Court of Texas and the Court of Criminal Appeals; justices on all Courts of Appeals; judges on district courts, including retired judges and masters; judges of county courts and county courts at law; justices of the peace; and municipal judges.

Authority for Operation of the Commission

The Texas Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 1-a, and Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, Art. 5966a*, are the source of authority under which the Commission operates.

It was in 1965 that the people of Texas approved the constitutional amendment that first created the Commission, known at that time as the Judicial Qualifications Commission. Texas was the second state to perceive the need of an agency to which the public could turn in the event of judicial misconduct. Now, every state in the union has such a judicial disciplinary agency.

Through the past two decades, additional constitutional amendments have changed the name of the Commission, and have expanded its jurisdiction and enlarged its powers. In 1984, Texans authorized the inclusion of retired judges and masters in Commission jurisdiction, expanded disciplinary alternatives available to the Commission, and clarified procedures for removal. Representational makeup of the Commission itself was also expanded to include a county court at law judge and a municipal judge in the group of citizens, lawyers, and judges who comprise the the Commission. The constitutional changes added three categories of improper judicial conduct: the willful or persistent violation of the rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas; incompetence in performing the duties of office; and willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct. The public's attitude toward the work of the Commission was evidenced by the fact that this amendment passed by the largest majority of any of the several amendments offered. The amendment affecting the Commission became effective on January 1, 1985, four months into fiscal year 1985.

Under the provisions of the Constitution and the statute currently in operation, the Commission may dismiss a complaint or may order a public or private warning, a public or private admonition, or a public or private reprimand. A judge may be required to undergo physical or psychiatric examination, or to obtain additional education. A judge charged with a felony criminal offense or a misdemeanor involving misconduct in office may be suspended with or without pay. The Commission may seek the removal or censure of a judge. Subpoena power is provided to enable the Commission to carry out its work.

Delineated as cause for the removal of a judge is willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice. Improper conduct includes, but is not limited to: failure to execute the business of the court in a timely manner, willful violation of a provision of the Texas Penal Code or the Code of Judicial Conduct, persistent or willful violation of the rules of the Supreme Court of Texas, and incompetence in the performance of the duties of office. The Commission also condemns the actions of judges who abuse the authority inherent in their positions or who are rude or disrespectful to those appearing in their courts.

The Commission does not have authority to change the decision of any court or to act as an appellate review board. The Commission does not give legal advice. The Commission does not act upon allegations against a judge for reaching a legal decision, making findings of fact, or applying the law as the judge understands it.

Emphasized in both the Constitution and the statute is a requirement for confidentiality concerning the work of the Commission, based upon the Commission's mandate to uphold the public's confidence in the judiciary.

Procedures of the Commission on Judicial Conduct

The constitutional and statutory provisions described in the section on "Authority," together with the Rules and Regulations for the Removal or Retirement of Judges promulgated by the Texas Supreme Court, make up the procedural framework within which the Commission operates.

A file is initiated by a written complaint.

Since the Commission's work is confidential in nature and not widely publicized, a telephone inquiry is often the first step in filing a complaint. If the caller has possible grounds for a complaint, he is sent an outline of policies and procedures, together with an affidavit form. While the complaint may be sworn to, the Commission also considers letters and news clippings as the basis for opening a file. Occasionally, the Commission itself may be the complainant in a case where the actions of a judge are reported by the news media and appear to be possible misconduct, or appear to bring discredit upon the judiciary.

When a complaint is received, a file is established and reviewed by the executive director. The case is analyzed and assigned to a staff attorney-investigator, who likewise reviews the allegations. That preliminary screening determines whether further investigation is expedient. Many complaints are in reality against law enforcement officers, corrections officials, lawyers, clerks, or even the federal judiciary. In these cases, the complainant is notified that the Commission has no jurisdiction. In other cases, the complainant may be disgruntled with a judge's decision, particularly in highly emotionally charged litigation such as custody or criminal trials. Such matters are properly matters for appeal, and the judge's good faith decision, even if it is in error, is not judicial misconduct. In all cases, the complainant is notified by mail immediately that his complaint has been received; if it is vague in its allegations, the complainant may be asked for more specific detail, or staff may request additional documentation.

If, after preliminary screening and investigation, it still appears possible that misconduct may have occurred, the judge may be requested to respond to specific inquiries in writing. The judge may be requested to provide legal authority for his actions, or to state whether the allegation is accurate, and if not, in what way it is not accurate. Facts may be further investigated on-site, or through telephone interviews, or both.

Each complaint is briefed by staff and presented to the Commission as a whole when it meets in Austin every other month. The Commission may at that time request additional investigation, or it may ask that the judge provide further information. The Commission may also dismiss the case at its first presentation, in which case both the judge and the complainant are so advised.

The judge may be invited to appear informally to have dialogue with the Commission, or to explain his actions. If a judge elects to appear, the meeting with the Commission is closed, unless the judge chooses to open the meeting. The judge may invite friends or family, or legal counsel if he wishes. If the judge wishes to introduce the testimony of others, it must be written. The judge may testify only under oath.

In a situation where a judge is suspended because of pending criminal charges, the Commission may decide to postpone action on the matter until after the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. At that time, the Commission would then undertake its own examination of the situation. The Commission would not seek to determine the guilt or innocence of the judge beyond a reasonable doubt, but rather whether, by a preponderance of the evidence, the judge had brought discredit upon the judicial system by his action or engaged in willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties.

The Commission may choose to dismiss a case for a variety of reasons--lack of available proof, outside the jurisdiction of the Commission, the judge acted within his discretion, or that the judge's actions did not rise to the level of judicial misconduct. Sometimes, corrective action is taken by the judge which will avoid the imposition of sanctions.

A private admonition is the least onerous of all sanctions that may be imposed by the Commission. An admonition is a letter to the judge suggesting that another action may be a better solution to the particular situation.

A private warning is stronger than an admonition, and a private reprimand is stronger still, spelling out the finding of judicial misconduct, and enumerating the reasons that such conduct is improper or brings discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice.

A public admonition or warning would be the same, except that a public admonition or warning would be released to the press.

Most serious of all these sanctions is the public reprimand, which is issued when the Commission believes that a judge has committed serious misconduct, and the judiciary would be best served by a public statement of the judge's misconduct.

Should the Commission determine that formal proceedings for removal are in order, the veil of confidentiality is lifted upon the convening of a formal hearing, and the hearing would be public. The Commission would seek the appointment of a master by the Supreme Court. After a public hearing, with the master presiding, the master would make findings of fact. The Commission would then dismiss the complaint, censure the judge, or forward the findings, with a recommendation for removal of the judge, to the Supreme Court. In the event of a recommendation of removal, the Supreme Court would appoint a seven-judge tribunal made up of justices from the Courts of Appeals throughout the state. The tribunal is chosen by lot by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Appeal from a decision of the tribunal would be directly to the Supreme Court, which would consider the case under the substantial evidence rule.

Judges who are removed or retired by the Supreme Court may be prohibited from holding judicial office in the future.

In every case, the complainant is notified of the conclusion of his case. The statute also specifies and limits the manner in which a complainant may be notified: the complaint has been dismissed; appropriate action has been taken, the nature of which may not be disclosed; or, formal proceedings have been instituted. In situations where a public sanction has been taken, the complainant is provided with a copy of that public document.

Annual Statistical Data

In fiscal year 1985, the Commission disposed of 390 cases, a 15 per cent increase over the 343 disposed of during fiscal year 1984. Of the cases disposed of in fiscal year 1985, the Commission ordered sanctions in a total of 77, or 20.8 per cent, an increase of 6.8 per cent over the previous year. In 1985, 20 judges appeared informally before the Commission.

Examples of Allegations of Improper Conduct

That the judiciary shares the foibles of all humanity is amply demonstrated by a scanning of the typical and atypical complaints received in the offices of the Commission. Without revealing specifics, the following examples of judicial misconduct were among those reviewed by the Commission in fiscal year 1985:

- A judge advised a defendant to make good on bad checks or go to jail, when the cases on those checks were not before the judge.
- A judge used his judicial office to intimidate an opposing litigant in a civil case in which the judge represented one of the litigants.
- A judge ruled in a case in which he and his son had a financial interest.
- A judge refused to answer questions before a judicial proceeding on the grounds that his answer might incriminate him.
- A judge solicited a litigant to provide beer for a party.
- A judge accepted a bribe.
- A judge acted on a matter that was properly before another court.
- A judge failed to handle the business of his court, including accounting for county funds paid through his court.
- A judge testified, as a character witness, without subpoena, in behalf of a friend in a criminal trial.
- A judge abused his power to arrest.
- A judge was acting as a collection agency for a business in violation of statute, and ordered a litigant to bring his money or go to jail.
- A judge aired his dispute with another public official in the press.
- A judge traded sexual favors for a favorable verdict.
- A judge called a district attorney a liar.
- A judge held a litigant in contempt for threatening to complain to the Commission.
- A judge was drunk on the bench.
- A judge got into an altercation involving fisticuffs.
- A judge had a litigant arrested for contempt when the litigant failed to pay a money judgment in a civil case.
- A judge harassed a witness the day after a trial with threats of prosecution for perjury.

Examples of Judicial Conduct Considered Proper

Often, emotionally involved litigants experience difficulty in determining the difference between judicial error and judicial misconduct. The limits of judicial misconduct are drawn by rules of court, the statutes and codes of ethics under which judges must conduct the business of the court; judicial error, on the other hand, is a decision that a reviewing tribunal determines was wrong. A "wrong" decision is not misconduct.

Without revealing specifics, the following types of conduct were considered by the Commission not to be misconduct in 1985.

- A judge ruled a death a suicide when some evidence of foul play was noted.
- A judge refused an ex parte conversation with a litigant.
- A judge did not require prepayment of court costs in gold.
- A judge refused to dismiss a case on grounds that it had been filed by an out-of-state corporation.
- A judge granted managing conservatorship of a child to a parent when some evidence had been introduced that the parent had abused the child.
- A judge refused to rule in a question involving title to land when his court had no jurisdiction over title to land.
- A judge would not instruct a criminal defendant in how to be an effective pro se attorney.
- A judge was conducting the business of his court in his commercial business establishment when the county did not provide him a court room or clerical assistance.
- A judge granted a summary judgment on issues of law, thus denying a litigant his "day in court."
- A judge refused to listen to several witnesses who would testify to the same fact.
- A judge believed a witness who was lying.
- A judge was staying in another county but intended his county of residence to be the county where he served.
- A judge entered a one-sided property judgment in a divorce.
- A judge was involved in a civil dispute over his own property line.
- A judge found a defendant guilty of speeding when the defendant proved his speedometer was not working properly.

Legislative Concerns of the Commission

During fiscal year 1985, the Commission considered some situations wherein the action of a judge raised considerable public outcry, yet may arguably have been within the letter of the law, or in which the law was unclear. Other complaints

* Judges counted in this category resigned in lieu of further Commission action. The Commission appreciates that the majority of judges who resign or retire do so to conclude an honorable judicial career.

* Codified as Ch. 33 of the Texas Government Code, eff. 9-1-85.

involved actions of a judge that occurred within a grey area of the law, or where the law was apparently inconsistent. In some of these instances, the Commission reserved action, determining instead to call these issues to the attention of the Legislature:

(1) There is a question as to the propriety of certain "innovative" sentencing practices by a number of judges at different levels throughout the State, who impose as a condition of probation a requirement that a criminal defendant pay monies to a "fund" administered by the court or to specific charities designated by the court. The required payments are distinct and apart from any other fine, restitution, reparation or probation fees authorized by statute. The practice in question may be gaining in popularity and could have a substantial effect in reducing income into state and local coffers from traditional fines and court costs. The practice is based on the provisions of Sections 6(a) of both Art. 42.12 and 42.13 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which provide, in the pertinent parts, that, "Terms and conditions of probation may include, but shall not be limited to. . ." (it is also noted that Art. 45.54 of the Code contains a related provision which allows the justice to require that a defendant, ". . . comply with any other reasonable condition. . .").

In one instance, in a county which is not among the State's more populous counties, the Commission observed that more than $188,000 was accumulated in a fund which was available for distribution by the judge. The money was being used for such diverse items as salary supplements, equipment for the sheriff's office, scholarships for county personnel to attend continuing education programs, rape crisis centers, computer equipment and software, consultant fees, etc. Probationers may be required to make one-time or continuing payments. It is obvious that the practice in question not only makes large amounts of money available to the judiciary for discretionary distribution, but does so in direct competition with the established system of fines and court costs and to the detriment of traditional budget-making responsibilities at the state and local level.

How far does a judge's discretion extend in establishing conditions for probation? In the past, the Legislature has specified a fee for probation, and a contribution to Crime Stoppers, as acceptable conditions for probation. A current attorney general's opinion, JM-307, states that contributions are permissible so long as the contribution is related to protection of the public or rehabilitation. If a fine is ordered, and a contribution as well, may the contribution exceed the fine? May a judge order a contribution in lieu of a fine, so that money which should have gone into the county's general fund to defray the costs of government goes instead to a private charity or cultural organization? May a judge order a contribution to a fund which he controls, and which is used to supplement county salaries or provide government services not budgeted by the appropriate legislative authority?

(2) Through utilization of the electorate as its selection method for judges, Texas subjects its judiciary each election year to public scrutiny, and, occasionally, to scurrilous attack. Politically embattled incumbent judges face the choice of responding with silence, possibly suffering defeat at the polls, or responding in kind, dropping the robe of judicial demeanor the better to engage in mud slinging.

May a candidate for judicial office running against an incumbent judge pursue a course of hard-hitting campaign advertising, while the incumbent judge is held to a judicial ethic of understatement and restraint? How far may an incumbent judge go in public attack upon his opponent? Should all judicial candidates be required to honor judicial ethics? A bitter campaign does not enhance the integrity of the judiciary as a whole, yet the Commission has no authority over a candidate who is not yet a judge.

In Kentucky, when a person announces as a candidate for judge, he comes under the jurisdiction of the judicial discipline agency, so that both parties in these races are held to a high level of judicial ethics in the conduct of the race.

The integrity of the judiciary suffers whether or not the charges hurled in a heated political campaign are truthful. Each election year, the Commission receives complaints that incumbent judges are engaging in unfair political practices in their re-election campaigns.

(3) As mentioned in previous annual reports, the Commission desires clarification of its authority to afford judges an opportunity to appear at Commission meetings prior to the initiation of formal proceedings. Virtually since the Commission came into being, it has invited judges in appropriate cases to appear informally to respond to allegations of misconduct. In many instances, the informal appearance by a judge has enabled the Commission to dispose of a complaint in a more timely and effective manner than would otherwise have been possible. Moreover, even though the appearance is informal, the judge's rights are protected since the judge can be, and often is, represented by counsel. Then the 68th Legislature in 1983 passed House Bill 44, which made some comprehensive changes to the statutory provisions governing Commission operations. One clause of that rather extensive amendment has introduced some confusion into the law and appears to be in conflict with other provisions of existing law as well as with constitutional due process requirements. While the Commission believes that the clause in question does not preclude the long-established practice of informal appearances, clarifying legislation would be in order. The Commission was gratified to note that during the last Legislative Session, companion bills were introduced in both the House and the Senate (H.B. 1483 by Rep. Frank Tejeda, and S.B. 701 by Sen. Oscar Mauzy) in an effort to insure that the statutory provisions were clear and in conformity with constitutional due process requirements. Although no opposition to either bill was observed, the Legislative Session ended prior to passage of either bill. The Commission appreciated the legislative efforts and requests their continuation in the next session.

The Composition of the Commission

Due to the change in the representation on the Commission that occurred with implementation of the new constitutional amendment, 12 members are currently serving on the Commission. One appellate judge position will be eliminated when the incumbent's term expires, bringing the Commission back down to a membership of 11. Serving on staggered six-year terms will be one justice of a Court of Appeals, one district judge, one county court at law judge, one justice of the peace, and one municipal court judge, all appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas. In addition, the Board of the State Bar of Texas appoints two members of the State Bar, each of whom has practiced for at least ten consecutive years. Finally, the Governor appoints four citizens who are not lawyers or judges and who are at least 30 years of age.

Judge John Boyd of Amarillo, Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District, is currently serving his second term as chairman of the Commission. He has served as chairman of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas and was recipient of the Presidential Citation of the State Bar in 1979. A graduate of the American Judicial Academy and the National College of the State Judiciary, he has served as faculty advisor for the National College of the State Judiciary and as an instructor in criminal law for the Texas College of the Judiciary.

ADVISORY OPINIONS ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

Rendered During the Year Ending August 31, 1985

At the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct, effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. The opinions of this Committee that were handed down during state fiscal year 1985 are reproduced below.

OPINION NO. 76

Question: May a judge draft or originate legislation dealing with substantive law?

Answer: The Committee's answer to the question is "yes." Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct permits a judge to engage in activities to improve the law, the legal system and the administration of justice. Specifically, under paragraph B of Canon 4, a judge may engage in such activities of appearing at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body. Also the judge may consult with executive or legislative officials on matters concerning the administration of justice. The Committee considers the foregoing language to encompass the drafting or origination of legislation dealing with substantive law.

OPINION NO. 77

Question: Would a judge violate the Code of Judicial Conduct if he acts as the sole trustee of a charitable trust created by an individual contributor who is not a member of his family?

Answer: Canon 5D provides that a judge should not serve as trustee or other fiduciary except for one or more members of his family. Although Canon 5B does pemit a judge to serve on the board of directors or trustees of an organization, that type of service is not involved in this quetion. The Committee is of the opinion that for a judge to act as a trustee under the circumstances stated by this question would be a violation of Canon 5D.

OPINION NO. 78

Question: Under the Code of Judicial Conduct, does a judge have the authority, in a criminal case, to remove a retained attorney for ineffective assistance of counsel?

Answer: No. The Committee is of the opinion that the action of removal of an attorney by a judge is a matter of law, not a question of ethics. Although the Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 3B(3) provides that "a judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware," it does not authorize a judge to remove or take disciplinary action. The intent of Canon 3B(3) is to advise a judge that it is unethical for a judge not to fulfill the responsibilities that the law places upon him; in this instance, to initiate appropriate action when he becomes aware of unprofessional conduct by a lawyer. See Guillory v. State, 557 S.W.2d 118, 121 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977) for types of appropriate action a judge may initiate.

OPINION NO. 79

Question: May a judge appoint an attorney as a master, pursuant to Art. 1918B, V.A.C.S., or Rule 171, Tex. R. Civ. Pro., where that attorney appears in the judge's court on a regular basis in other unrelated matters?*

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that this is a question of law as distinguished from a question of ethics. Whether an attorney is qualified to be appointed a master is a matter of law. The only foreseeable ethical consideration would be if a judge knowingly appointed a master who was not qualified or made an appointment in disregard of Canon 3B(4).

Your Committee respectfully declines to assume that a judge would knowingly not follow the law by appointing a master who is not qualified.

Your Committee also points out that its function is limited to issuing opinions on ethical maters, not matters of law. Therefore, your Committee respectfully declines to give an opinion on the legal question you have posed.

* Art. 1918b was codified, effective 9/1/85, as Government Code Secs. 54.001-54.014, V.T.C.A.

OPINION NO. 80

Question: May a person who has been appointed as a Master of a District Court continue to serve as a member of a city planning and zoning board?

Answer: Although a Master of a Court is not a judge, the compliance section of the Code of Judicial Conduct makes a master or a referee, who are permanently appointed by a district judge, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Code.

Canon 5G, concerning extra-judicial appointments, states "A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the Law, the Legal system or the Administration of Justice."

The Committee is of the opinion that serving on a city planning and zoning board, by a permanently appointed master, does not fall within any of the exceptions enumerated in Canon 5G and is prohibited by the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 81

Question: May a judge serve as chairman of the board of a title company, a private corporation?

Answer: The Code of Judicial Conduct does not specifically prohibit a judge from serving as Chairman of the Board of a title company which is a private corporation. It does set forthe guidelines that a judge should observe:

(1) A judge should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. (Canon 2A).

(2) A judge should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. (Canon 2B).

(3) A judge should regulate his extra-judicial activities to minimize the risk of conflict with his judicial activities, (Canon 5) and manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. (Canon 5C(3)). See, Canon 3C for judicial disqualifications.

The Committee assumes that the judge would not permit his title to be used upon the company stationery or any other printed material of the title company.

If there is no conflict with the canons set out above, the Judicial Ethics Committee perceives no violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

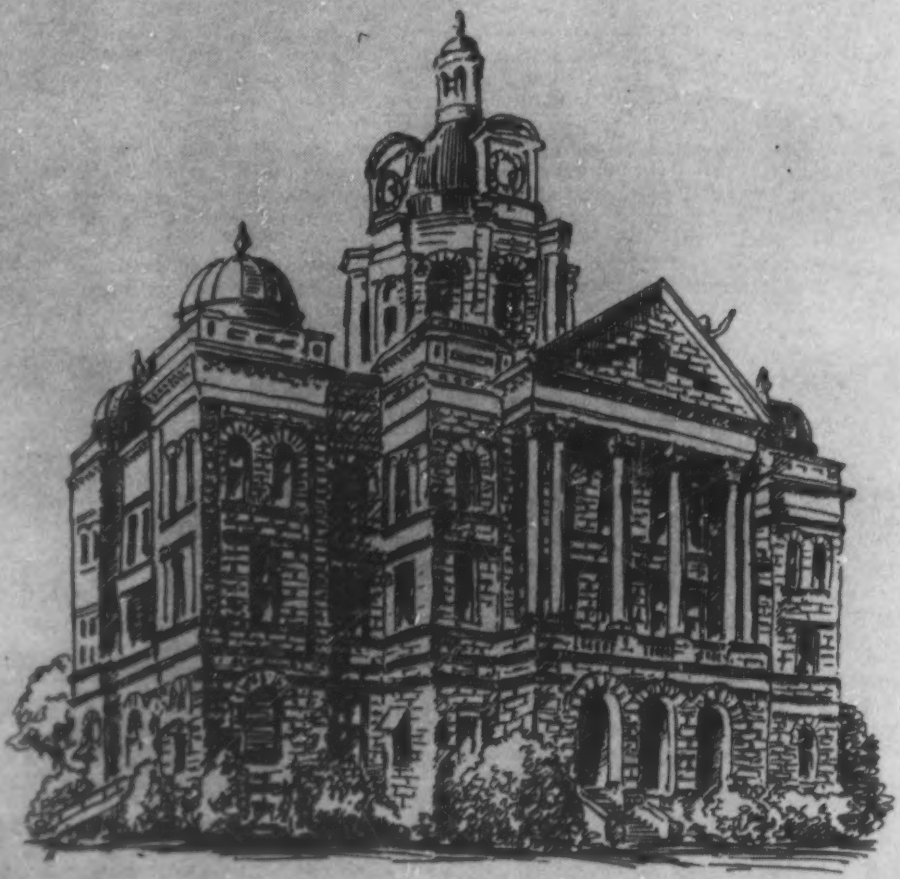
COURT ACTIVITY: SUMMARIES AND ANALYSES



CORYELL COUNTY COURTHOUSE
GATESVILLE, TEXAS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least four factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, juvenile board duties and responsibilities, and many other matters.
4. In lieu of a conviction and sentence, present statutes authorize a judge to place defendants on "deferred adjudication" and to impose conditions similar to those of regular probation. A case in which deferred adjudication is granted remains on the docket as a pending case and does not appear as a disposition in court statistics until the defendant has completed all conditions of deferred adjudication and the case is dismissed, or the defendant is sentenced upon failure to comply with the conditions imposed, even though it requires both time and resources of the court.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

TEXAS COURT ACTIVITY

Overview of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

APPELLATE COURTS

The Texas Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, both located in Austin, and the 14 Courts of Appeals which are located in 13 different cities of the state, all reported increased numbers of cases filed during the reporting period which ended August 31, 1985.

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court had its busiest year of record during the year which ended August 31, 1985. It wrote more opinions, added more regular causes, applications for writs of error and other writs and motions to its dockets, and disposed of more matters than during any previous 12-month period.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 1,920 matters during the year which ended August 31, 1985, an increase of 18.1 percent over the number of matters passed on during the previous year and 19.8 percent more than the 10-year average.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The Court of Criminal Appeals experienced an increase in the number of petitions for discretionary review, writs of habeas corpus, and motions filed during the year which ended August 31, 1985. Total matters added to the docket, which also included cases considered on the merits, rose 6.7 percent from the previous year.

The Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 4,558 matters during the year. This represented an increase of 2.8 percent over the number of dispositions during the previous year.

Courts of Appeals

For the third consecutive year the 14 Courts of Appeals reduced their total pending caseloads.

The Courts disposed of a total of 7,981 cases during the year, an average of 100 dispositions (57 criminal and 43 civil) per justice. These dispositions reduced the total pending caseload in these Courts from 5,719 on September 1, 1984 to 5,692 on August 31, 1985. These pending figures on August 31, 1985, included 3,512 criminal cases and 2,180 civil cases.

Approximately 47 percent of all cases filed in the Courts of Appeals were filed in the two Houston and one Dallas Courts.

The average length of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition was 9.2 months. However, the average lapse of time between submission of a criminal appeal and its disposition was 1.2 months. A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition was 7.8 months. The average lapse of time from the submission of a civil case to its disposition was 2.2 months.

TRIAL COURTS

District Courts

During the year ending August 31, 1985, 32 death sentences and 305 life sentences were imposed by the 370 district courts of the state, compared to 30 death sentences and 306 life sentences assessed in the previous year.

Burglary cases comprise the single largest category of criminal cases handled by the district courts during the year. There were 19,499 burglary cases disposed of -- 19 percent of all criminal case dispositions.

Divorce comprised the single largest category of civil cases handled by the district courts. There were 142,278 divorce cases disposed — 40 percent of all civil case dispositions. This was 4 percent more than the 137,247 divorce cases disposed in the prior year.

Disposition rates during the year ending August 31, 1985, ranged from 40 percent for civil cases, to 52 percent for criminal cases, to 70 percent for juvenile cases. Cases filed, meanwhile, increased 4 percent for both civil and criminal cases, and increased 7 percent for juvenile cases, as compared to 1984.

District judges disposed of an average of 1,267 cases each during the year ended August 31, 1985, an increase of 4 percent over the average disposition rate of 1,220 cases per judge during 1984.

SUPREME COURT

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates rules of administration and civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is comprised of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

By any measure of workload, the Supreme Court had its busiest year of record during state fiscal year 1985 which ended August 31, 1985. It wrote more opinions, added more regular causes, applications for writs of error and other writs and motions to its dockets, and disposed of more matters than during any previous 12-month period.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 1,920 matters during fiscal 1985, an increase of 18.1% over the 1,626 matters passed on in fiscal 1984 and 19.8% more than the 10-year average of 1,602.

Regular Causes

The 178 regular causes added to the Court's docket were 89.4% more than the 94 regular causes added in fiscal 1984 and 48.3% more than the 10-year average of 120.

The 160 regular causes disposed of were 42.9% more than the 112 disposed of in fiscal 1984 and 35.6% more than the 10-year average of 118. One hundred forty-one of the regular causes disposed of during 1985 came to the Court on application for writ of error from one of the 14 Courts of Appeals. Of those 141 dispositions, the lower courts were reversed in whole or in part in 108 or 76.6%. This compares to 75.7% reversals in fiscal 1984.

The 51 regular causes left pending at the end of fiscal 1985 represented 24.2% of the total number of regular causes added during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is lower than the 10-year average of 27.2%. At the end of fiscal 1984, 33 regular causes had been pending in the Court.

Applications for Writs of Error

The 998 applications for writs of error filed during fiscal 1985 represented a 1.1% increase over the 987 applications filed in fiscal 1984, and was 20% more than the 10-year average of 832.

The 1,018 applications for writs of error disposed of during the year was 15% more than the 885 disposed of during fiscal 1984, and a 24.9% increase over the 10-year average of 815. Of those 1,018 applications disposed of, 141 or 13.9% were granted.

The 288 applications for writs of error left pending at the end of fiscal 1985 represented 22.1% of the total number of such applications filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This compares to a 10-year average of 19.1%. At the end of fiscal 1984, 308 applications for writs of error had been pending in the Court.

Other Writs and Motions

The 751 other writs and motions filed during fiscal 1985 were 16.8% more than the 643 filed during fiscal 1984, and 11.8% more than the 10-year average of 672.

The 742 other writs and motions disposed of during fiscal 1985 were 18% more than the 629 disposed during fiscal 1984, and 10.7% more than the 10-year average of 670.

The 104 other writs and motions left pending by the Court at the end of fiscal 1985 represented 12.3% of the total number of other writs and motions filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This compares to a 10-year average of 8.5%. At the end of fiscal 1984, 95 other writs and motions had been pending in the Court.

Opinions Written

During fiscal year 1985, the justices of the Supreme Court wrote 217 opinions (or an average of 24.1 opinions each), 40.9% more than the 154 opinions written in fiscal 1984 and 34% more than the 10-year average of 162. Of the opinions written in 1985, 153 (or 70.5%) were deciding opinions which disposed of causes.

During fiscal 1985, the Supreme Court heard oral argument of 103 causes and considered an additional 48 causes submitted on briefs.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. Regular causes are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the Court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. "Cases Other Than Regular Causes" include such actions as the Court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of regular causes.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. Additionally, pursuant to sec. 22.106 of the Texas Government Code, special commissioners may be designated to aid and assist the court as needed.

Until September 1, 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals received all criminal cases appealed from the district and county-level trial courts of the State. On that date, a constitutional amendment and implementing legislation became effective which conferred on the 14 Courts of Appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those in which the death penalty was assessed. Appeal of death penalty cases remains direct to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Decisions of the Courts of Appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for discretionary review, filed either by the State, or the defendant, or both. In addition, the Court may review a decision on its own motion.

Matters Added to the Docket

During the state fiscal year 1985 which ended August 31, 1985, there was a total of 443 cases added to the docket of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Two hundred sixty of these were cases where discretionary review was granted by the Court and 183 were direct appeals, death penalty appeals, writs of habeas corpus granted, and extraordinary writs. Death penalty appeals in fiscal 1985 numbered 42, compared to 35 in fiscal 1984.

The 443 cases added in fiscal year 1985 represent a decrease of 8.8 percent from the 486 cases added during fiscal year 1984, which ended August 31, 1984.

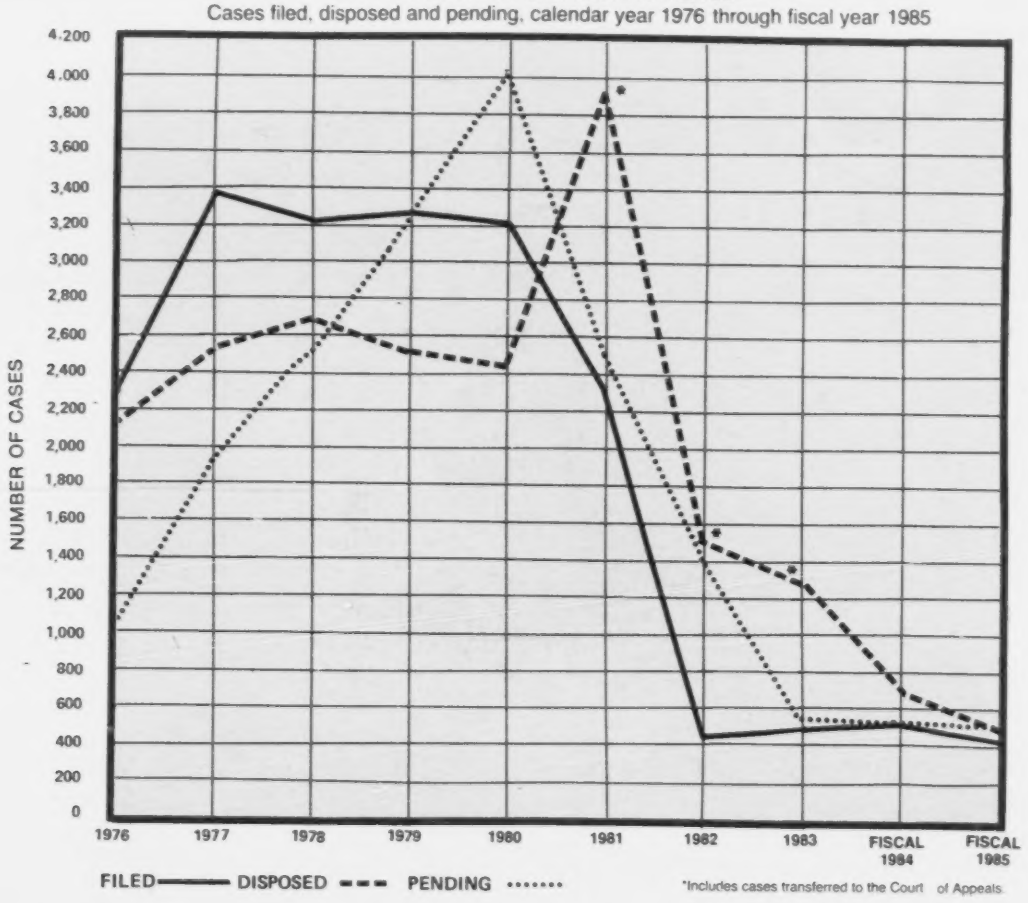
In addition to the cases added:

(1) The Court had 1,360 petitions for discretionary review filed during fiscal 1985, compared to 1,281 during the previous year (an increase of 6.2 percent). Petitions for discretionary review were received from 125 counties

Figure 3.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

Cases filed, disposed and pending, calendar year 1976 through fiscal year 1985



during 1985, with 49 percent of them originating from Harris or Dallas Counties;

(2) There were 1,815 applications for writs of habeas corpus filed during fiscal 1985 (a slight increase over the 1,797 filed in fiscal 1984); and

(3) 1,145 other motions or applications were handled by the Court (27.4 percent more than the 899 considered the previous year).

Rate of Dispositions Decreases

During fiscal year 1985, the Court disposed of 476 cases considered on their merits, compared to 702 such dispositions in fiscal 1984. In 1985 those 476 dispositions represented 49 percent of all cases on the docket (that is, cases filed during the year or carried over from previous years). In fiscal 1984, this disposition rate was 59 percent.

In fiscal 1985, 1,046 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of, 228 (or 22 percent) of which were granted and the remainder were refused or dismissed. In fiscal 1984, 1,081 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of, 300 (or 28 percent) of which were granted.

There were 1,891 applications for writs of habeas corpus disposed of in fiscal 1985, compared to 1,751 in 1984, and increase of 8 percent.

Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 833 opinions during fiscal 1985, 565 (68 per cent) of which were "deciding" opinions which disposed of cases. The remainder were dissents, concurrences, and opinions on rehearing. Of the deciding opinions, 279 were signed and 286 were per curiam. During 1984, members of the Court wrote 871 opinions, 79 percent of which were deciding opinions.

Total Pending Caseload Increases

On August 31, 1985, there were 1,682 total matters (excluding miscellaneous motions and applications) pending in the Court. This represented an increase of 14 percent over the 1,477 matters pending on September 1, 1984.

Despite the increase in total pending, there were actual decreases in the number of pending cases in which discretionary review had been granted, and in the number of pending applications for writs of habeas corpus. On August 31, 1985, there were pending 231 granted discretionary review cases, 274 applications for writs of habeas corpus, 901 petitions for discretionary review, and 276 direct appeals, death penalty appeals, granted habeas corpus writs, and extraordinary writs.

COURTS OF APPEALS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

There are 14 Courts of Appeals in Texas which, since September 1, 1981, have heard intermediate appeals in both civil and criminal cases.

Courts of Appeals are located in Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texarkana, Amarillo, El Paso, Beaumont, Waco, Eastland, Tyler, Corpus Christi, and Houston. Houston has two Courts of Appeals. Each court has jurisdiction over a geographical district.

Five of the courts have three justices each. The Dallas Court, with 13 justices, is the largest. There are 80 justices statewide.

Pending Caseloads Reduced Again

For the third consecutive year, the 14 Courts of Appeals reduced their total pending caseloads during state fiscal year 1985, which ended August 31, 1985.

The Courts disposed of 7,981 total cases during the year, an average of 100 dispositions (57 criminal and 43 civil) per justice. These dispositions reduced the pending caseload from 5,719 at the beginning of the fiscal year to 5,692 at the end of the year.

From calendar year 1974 through 1982, the total pending caseload of the Courts of Appeals grew larger each year as more cases were added than the courts were able to dispose of. On December 31, 1982, there were 6,816 total cases pending in the Courts of Appeals.

The trend was broken in calendar year 1983 when a surge in criminal dispositions reduced the total pending caseload by year's end. In fiscal year 1984, both civil and criminal caseloads were reduced during the year.

The Courts of Appeals had 3,502 criminal cases and 2,217 civil cases pending as of September 1, 1984. On August 31, 1985, 3,512 criminal cases and 2,180 civil cases were pending. The state average for pending cases at year's end was 71 per justice. This compares to the 1982 high of 86 pending cases per justice.

Total Filings Rise 7.7 Percent

A total of 7,484 cases were filed in the Courts of Appeals during the fiscal year, which included 4,186 criminal cases and 3,298 civil cases. This was an increase of 7.7 percent from the 6,951 total new cases filed in fiscal year 1984. New criminal cases increased 5 percent from the 3,988 filed in fiscal year 1984 and civil cases increased 11.3 percent from the 2,963 filed in fiscal year 1984.

Considering civil and criminal cases together, the First Court in Houston had the highest average number of new cases filed per justice (114.2) during fiscal year 1985. The other courts ranged down to 64 cases per justice filed in the Sixth Court in Texarkana. State average filings were 93.6 per justice.

The Fifth Court of Appeals in Dallas disposed of the largest number of cases per justice (118.7) during fiscal year 1985. The lowest number per justice (82) was in the Twelfth Court at Tyler.

State average dispositions were 99.8 per justice.

The largest number of pending cases per justice (113) at the end of the fiscal year was in the Twelfth Court of Appeals in Tyler. The lowest number per justice (33) was in the Eleventh Court in Eastland.

Approximately 27 percent of all cases filed in a Court of Appeals in Texas in fiscal year 1985 were filed in one of the two Courts located in Houston. Approximately 20 percent of all cases filed in the State were filed in the Dallas Court of Appeals.

In fiscal year 1985, the Courts of Appeals wrote 7,522 opinions, 4 percent less than the 7,841 written in 1984.

The Courts of Appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 12.6 percent of the cases disposed of during fiscal year 1985, compared to 14.4 percent in calendar year 1984.

While the 14 Courts of Appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographic areas, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts on order of the Supreme Court, pursuant to statutory authority. The Supreme Court transferred 167 civil cases and 187 criminal cases in fiscal year 1985, compared with 151 civil cases and 419 criminal cases transferred in fiscal year 1984.

Disposition of Criminal Cases

Of the 3,512 criminal cases pending in the Courts of Appeals at the end of fiscal year 1985, 58 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 30 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 12 percent more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6.3 months in the Eastland Court to 11.9 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 9.2 months.

A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard. The average lapse of time between submission of a criminal appeal and its disposition ranged from 0.2 of a month in the Beaumont Court to 2.7 months in the San Antonio and Corpus Christi Courts. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 1.2 months.

New Civil Filings Increase 11.3 Percent

New civil cases filed in all of the Courts of Appeals during fiscal year 1985 increased 11.3 percent from fiscal year 1984. More new civil cases were filed in fiscal year 1985 than in fiscal year 1984 in all but the Corpus Christi, Eastland, and El Paso Courts. Of the courts with increased civil filings, the First Court in Houston experienced the largest percentage increase--33.5 percent (112 cases). The Dallas Court continued to receive more new civil filings than any other court--612 compared to the average of 235.6 per court. The two courts in Houston, each of which has jurisdiction of the same geographical area, received a combined total of 828 civil cases, 27.8 percent more than in fiscal year 1984.

At the end of fiscal year 1985, 2,180 civil cases were pending on the dockets of the Courts of Appeals, 1.7 percent fewer than the 2,217 pending on September 1, 1984. Of those civil cases pending on August 31, 1985, 63.4 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 23.2 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 13.4 percent for more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 5.0 months in the First Court of Houston to 11.6 months in the Amarillo Court. The average lapse of time for civil cases statewide was 7.8 months.

The average lapse of time from the submission of a civil case to the court and its disposition ranged from 1.0 month in the Waco and Houston First Courts to 3.8 months in the Corpus Christi Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 2.2 months.

DISTRICT COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

During the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1985, four new district courts were created as a result of legislation. On September 1, 1984, there were 367 district-level courts. That number increased to 371 by the end of the year with the addition of new courts created effective January 1, 1985. For statistical purposes, 370 has been used as an average number of district courts for the year.

The district courts experienced a 3.8 percent increase in new cases filed during the reporting year, up to 484,834 from 466,992 in 1984. The number of new criminal cases filed increased 3.7 percent above 1984, while civil cases increased 3.8 percent and juvenile cases increased 6.7 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 76.5 percent of all new cases filed during the fiscal year. The largest segment of civil cases filed (37.6 percent of new civil filings) were divorce actions. Of the civil cases filed, damages and personal injury cases (including workers' compensation) comprised 12.0 percent, tax cases comprised 11.1 percent, and disputes over debts comprised 15.2 percent.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 2.2 percent of the total cases filed in the district courts.

Criminal cases constituted 21.2 percent of the total new cases filed during the year ending August 31, 1985. Of the criminal cases, 17.1 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 20.1 percent burglary, 5.4 percent robbery, 1.9 percent homicide (including capital murder), 4.9 percent rape (including sexual abuse of a child, sexual assault and aggravated sexual assault), 3.1 percent felony DWI and 15.8 percent drug offenses (including marijuana). About 6.3 percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. About 13 percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder were by indictment.

* After September 1, 1983, this category included sexual assault and aggravated sexual assault.

Urban Filings Increase

The number of all categories of cases filed in the ten Texas counties with populations over 210,000 increased 3.2 percent for state fiscal year 1985 over the number of filings during 1984. In all other counties, the number of cases filed increased 4.7 percent. These ten large-population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces, Jefferson, and Lubbock) had approximately 54 percent of the State's population and 58 percent of the total cases filed during the fiscal year.

Total case filings increased in the counties of Hidalgo (15.4 percent), Travis (11.9 percent), Tarrant (10.9 percent), El Paso (5.3 percent), Dallas (4.3 percent), and Bexar (3.4 percent). Decreases in total filings occurred in the counties of Jefferson (8.4 percent), Lubbock (1.3 percent), Nueces (1.2 percent), and Harris (0.9 percent).

New filings in criminal cases increased 4.4 percent in the ten urban counties during fiscal year 1985 as compared to 1984. This compares to an increase of 2.8 percent in criminal filings for all other counties of the State. The largest increase in criminal filings among the ten urban counties was in Tarrant County (22.5 percent) followed by Hidalgo County (20.3 percent). The largest decline in criminal filings was in Jefferson County (30.9 percent) followed by Nueces County (11.8 percent).

Civil case filings rose 2.8 percent in the most populous counties, and 5.3 percent in the remaining counties of the State. Only two of the ten urban counties reported declines in civil filings: Harris (0.9 percent) and Jefferson (2.3 percent). The largest increases in civil filings were in the counties of Travis (16.4 percent), Tarrant (8.0 percent), and El Paso (4.5 percent).

Percent of Dispositions Increases

During the fiscal year ending August 31, 1985, the district courts of the State disposed of 42.3 percent of the total cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year)--compared to 41.7 in 1984. The district courts in the ten counties with populations over 210,000 disposed of 44.7 percent. In all other counties of the State, 40.1 percent were disposed Statewide, 52.1 percent of the criminal cases and 40.0 percent of the civil cases on the dockets were disposed of during the year.

In the ten urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 52.6 percent, ranging from 56.9 percent in Tarrant County to 35.6 percent in Jefferson County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 210,000 averaged 52.6 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 42.4 percent in the ten urban counties and 37.0 percent in the rest of the State. The range in the ten urban counties was from 60.7 percent in Dallas County to 30.5 percent in Lubbock County.

An average of 1,267 cases per judge were disposed of during the year, an increase of 3.8 percent from the disposition rate of 1,220 cases per judge in 1984.

Of all civil cases, 38.4 percent were disposed of by non-jury trials. (Almost 69 percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Of the civil cases disposed, 18.2 percent were dismissed for want of prosecution, and 15.7 percent were dismissed at the request of the plaintiff.

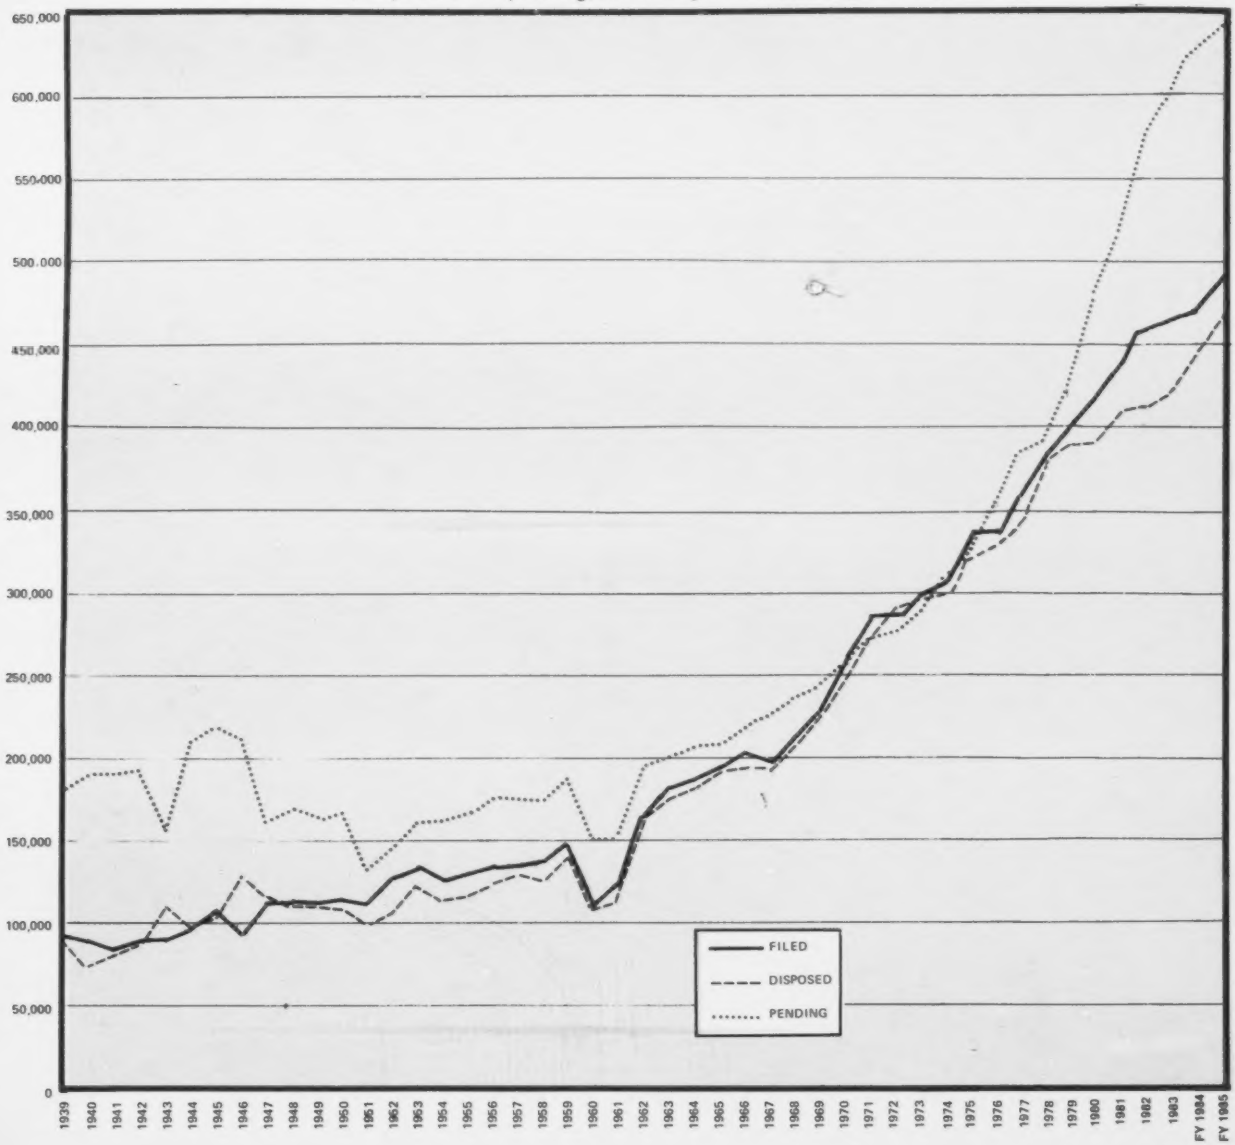
The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 54.6 percent of the criminal cases disposed. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 58.1 percent of the cases and acquitted in slightly over one percent. One-third of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 11.7 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 23.9 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories of cases. Only 19.6 percent of the tax cases filed during the year or carried over from the previous year were disposed of by the district courts.

More than 31 percent of the personal injury-type cases ended in agreed judgments, and 21.8 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

Of the 353,859 civil dispositions during the year ending August 31, 1985, the courts disposed of 25.7 percent in under three months, 20.2 percent in three to six months, 17.5 percent in six to 12 months, 11.3 percent in 12 to 18 months, and 25.3 percent took over 18 months.

Figure 9.
DISTRICT COURTS
Cases filed, disposed, and pending, calendar year 1939 through fiscal year 1985



The total number of cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1985--639,848--was 4.3 percent higher than the 613,676 pending on September 1, 1984. Criminal cases pending increased by 2.0 percent while civil cases pending were up 4.6 percent.

At the current disposition rate, it would take an average of 498.3 days for the district courts to dispose of the cases which were pending on August, 31, 1985.

In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 83.9 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 16.1 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 66.0 percent of the cases and acquittals in 34.0 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 13.2 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) with 76.6 percent by convictions. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of theft cases (49.4 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for felony DWI (22.2 percent).

Death Sentences Imposed

Thirty-two death sentences (compared to 30 in 1984) and 305 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during the year ending August 31, 1985. A total of 26,029 commitments to the Texas Department of Corrections were reported (including persons incarcerated after revocations of probations). Another 4,632 persons were incarcerated in local jails, 26,565 were placed on probation (excluding the 10,694 persons placed on deferred adjudication), and $16,803,200 in fines were assessed. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas, 29.9 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the date of indictment or information, 12.1 percent took two to three months, 10.1 percent took three to four months, and 43.0 percent took over four months. The remaining 4.9 percent of the dispositions were after completion of deferred adjudication.

Of the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS) was entered in 67.8 percent of the cases disposed. The juvenile was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in 1.6 percent.

District courts handled 3.7 percent more divorce actions during 1985 than during 1984. During the fiscal year, 142,278 divorce cases were disposed of--40.2 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Some 22.5 percent of divorce cases were dismissed.

JUVENILE COURT ACTIVITY

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district court, criminal district court, county court at law, or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

The total statewide activity indicates that during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1985, about 81 percent of the juvenile cases in the State were handled by district courts and 19 percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Juvenile Filings Increase 9.9%

Statewide, 13,604 new juvenile cases were filed during fiscal year 1985--9.9 percent more than in 1984. Of these, 12,308 were for allegations of delinquent conduct and 1,296 were for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision. The courts disposed of 14,566 cases--7.9 percent more than in 1984.

Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) were entered in 68.7 percent of the dispositions. Findings of no delinquent conduct or no conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 1.5 percent. Less than 30 percent of dispositions were dismissed or otherwise disposed of (including change of venue transfers).

Of those children found to be delinquent or in need of supervision, 80.2 percent were placed on formal probation. Where probations were granted, 6,527 (or 81.3 percent) of the children were placed in the care of their parents; 1,101 (or 13.7 percent) were placed in residential care facilities; and 402 (or 5.0 percent) were placed with foster parents.

Children found to be delinquent were ordered confined to a Texas Youth Commission facility in 16.9 percent of the cases.

During fiscal year 1985, 234 children were certified to be tried as adults, up from 161 children in 1984.

Other actions taken by juvenile courts during the fiscal year included the holding of 14,604 detention hearings and 1,001 hearings on motions to modify court orders and the granting of 906 motions to revoke probation.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

The Judicial Council determined from various sources that there were 948 justices of the peace in Texas during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1985. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. Statewide, the Council received 8,428 reports out of a possible 11,616 for the year (a 73 percent reporting rate).

Two-Thirds of Filings are Traffic Cases

Criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 89 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 75 percent were traffic cases (2/3 of all cases filed). During the fiscal year, 1,524,017 traffic cases were reported filed. Non-traffic criminal cases comprised 25 percent of the criminal cases filed. Civil cases provided 11 percent of the new cases filed. Twenty-one percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, 41 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits, and 38 percent were other civil actions.

In addition to cases filed, the reporting courts held 10,144 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In their capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting justices of the peace accepted 53,232 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 49,232 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). There were 2,076 examining trials held (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) and 12,633 inquests conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 42,534. Also, 4,263 search warrants were issued, and 108,144 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Emergency mental commitment hearings were conducted on 4,295 occasions, and 11,681 matters relating to juveniles were undertaken.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving or deferred disposition), and at trial. Eighty percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 14 percent at trial, and 5 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course or a period of deferred disposition.

Looking at traffic cases only, 16 percent were dismissed and 8% were disposed of by trial. The remaining 77% were disposed of prior to trial, 99% of those by payment of fine. Of the 8% that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining cases were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 92 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 78 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 87 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Twelve percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 88 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 69 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (71 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than did criminal cases (8 percent). Twenty percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported the disposition of 1,812,585 cases, which is 79 percent of the 2,300,660 filed. Appeals were filed in 19,120 cases tried in the justice of the peace courts, or about one percent of the cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $74 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1985, was $74,259,096. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to special funds of the State.

Finally, justices of the peace reported holding 153,347 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 78,836 causes not being filed as formal cases.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.)

3. Small Claims Suits. This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with Article 2460a, V.T.C.S.

4. Forcible Entry and Detainer. This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of Sections 24.001 - 24.008, Texas Property Code, and Rules 738-755, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Other Civil Suits. This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt) and for foreclosure of liens upon or for possession of personal property.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1985

Each of the 839 municipal courts operating in Texas cities during the year ending August 31, 1985, was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Texas Judicial Council on activity in the court. Statewide, the Council received 7,473 reports out of a possible 10,092 for the year (74 percent).

Traffic Cases Dominate Dockets

Traffic cases comprised 92 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. A total of 6,227,748 traffic cases were filed in these courts during the year. Non-traffic criminal cases accounted for the other 8 percent of the cases filed.

Of new traffic cases filed, 61 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 39 percent for parking-related offenses. Seventy-eight percent of non-traffic cases filed were for state law violations with 22 percent related to local ordinances.

In the municipal judges' capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 62,754 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 22,209 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). A total of 191 examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 184 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 11,043. There were 7,899 search warrants issued and 67,342 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. In addition, 498 emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 6,022 matters relating to juveniles were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Eighty-five percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 11 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 4 percent were defensive driving dismissals or dismissals following completion of deferred disposition.

Looking at traffic cases only, 92 percent were disposed of prior to trial (79 percent of the non-parking and 99 percent of the parking). Of the 9 percent that went to trial, more than 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the rest before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 87 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 71 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 69 percent were disposed of prior to trial (67 percent of the state law violations and 79 percent of those relating to city ordinances), and 27 percent were disposed of at trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 89 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 59 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 5,703,033 cases, which is 84 percent of the 6,799,624 filed. Of the convictions, 81,189 cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than 1.4 percent of the total cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $150 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1985, was $150,626,133. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle.

Non-Parking includes all those violations which do not involve offenses for improper parking (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

Parking includes those offenses, by state law or city ordinance, which involve the improper standing of a vehicle (for example, Parking on Highway Right of Way, Within an Intersection, Overparking, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations.

State Law violations are those usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.).

City Ordinance violations are those non-traffic offenses found in the ordinances of the city (for example, Dog Running at Large, Plumbing Code violation, etc.).

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

For the past few years, there has been 100% reporting from the district and county clerks regarding the activity in the district and county courts of Texas. This has not yet been true, however, regarding justice of the peace and municipal courts. For this reason, it is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories, with abbreviation used in parentheses, are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER (CAP. MURD). Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER (MURD OR VOL. MANS). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER (ASLT OR ATT. MURD). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault); any offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault), 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer), or 22.04 (Injury to a Child); or any offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.03) or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. RAPE. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape) or 21.03 (Aggravated Rape). After Sept. 1, 1983, any offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is an adult (17 years or older).

5. SEXUAL ABUSE OR RAPE OF A CHILD. CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (AUTO PERS. INJURY). All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (OTHER PERS. INJURY). Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION (WORKERS COMP). Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES (ACCT CONT NOTE). Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS (RECIP). Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state. Includes Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (U.R.E.S.A.) cases.

8. CONDEMNATION (CONDM). Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

9. NON-ADVERSARY (NON ADVER.). This is a narrowly defined category, to include only:
   - -Adoptions
   - -Changes of Name
   - -Occupational Drivers License
   - -Termination of Parental Rights
   - -Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority
   - -Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
   - -Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil or juvenile cases.
